

Carefully read the information below before filling out the form.

What is a power of attorney?

A written power of attorney is an important document. You (the mandator) are giving the person of your choice (the mandatary) the power to carry out an operation in connection with your SAAQ file on your behalf.¹

If you cannot go in person to an SAAQ outlet and want to authorize another person (a mandatary) to represent you, you must fill out, sign and date this form. The mandatary acts on your behalf.

Once completed, the power of attorney contains confidential information that could be used for other purposes, which is why the SAAQ recommends only giving a power of attorney to someone you trust and keeping a copy of the document.

In this form, the following terms are defined as follows:

Mandator: Person who gives someone else the authority to represent them and transact with the SAAQ on their behalf.

Mandatary: Person who agrees to represent the mandator and transact with the SAAQ on the mandator's behalf.

Transferor: Person who sells or gives away a vehicle.

Transferee: Person who becomes the owner of a vehicle (e.g. person who purchases, inherits, or is given a vehicle).

Admissibility criteria

- 1) All required sections must be completed according to the instructions.
- 2) The text of the power of attorney must not have been erased, crossed out or altered.
- 3) Signatures must be handwritten. (Electronic or scanned signatures will be refused.)
- 4) A fax or copy of a duly completed form can be accepted only if the required signatures are original.
- 5) The mandatary must be age 18 or older and will have to provide one piece of identification accepted by the SAAQ.²
- 6) If you choose to indicate only your date of birth in Section 1, you must provide the mandatary with an original piece of identification accepted by the SAAQ.² The mandatary must show your original piece of identification to conduct the operation on your behalf.

If you have a valid Québec driver's licence and you indicate the reference number in Section 1 of the form, the mandatary will not have to provide an original piece of identification in your name.

Transferring a vehicle

If you are selling or giving away your vehicle, complete and sign Sections 1, 2 and 3A.

IMPORTANT! You could be held responsible for a traffic violation committed with the vehicle as long as it is registered under your name. It is your responsibility to ensure that the vehicle is registered under the transferee's name. If the mandatary does not transfer the vehicle, you remain responsible for it.

If you are acquiring a vehicle, complete and sign Sections 1, 2 and 3B.

Note that the transfer will be denied if the odometer reading reported in Section 2 or 3B is less than what was previously declared. You can ask the transferor for explanations or go in person to authorize the SAAQ to proceed with the transfer if you still wish to do so.

Vehicle registered under more than one name (co-ownership or co-lease)

All co-owners or co-lessees must be present to transfer the vehicle; otherwise, a power of attorney must be presented for each absentee.³

Giving away or selling a vehicle to a relative

To give away or sell a vehicle registered in Québec to a relative, both parties must present:

- the duly completed Declaration of a Transaction Between Related Individuals with Regard to a Road Vehicle Registered in Québec \(VD-80.1-V\) form from Revenu Québec;
- a document proving kinship.³

To avoid unpleasant surprises

Before transferring the vehicle, verify whether it can be registered by calling 1-800-361-7620 or using the Checking if a Vehicle Can be Registered online service available on SAAQclik.

³ For more information, or to find out which documents are accepted to prove kinship, contact the SAAQ's call centre at 1-800-361-7620, or consult the SAAQ's website (saaq.gouv.qc.ca).
